

OBTAINING YOUR CDL CHECKLIST

1.CDL Written Test Preparation: Begin your commercial driving career journey by preparing for the CDL written test, ensuring a solid grasp of road rules and regulations.

2.DOT Medical Card Acquisition: Obtain a DOT Medical Card to confirm fitness for commercial driving through a comprehensive medical examination, meeting essential physical and mental requirements.

3.DMV Appointment Scheduling: Efficiently schedule a DMV appointment for the written test to obtain a learner's permit, a vital step for further training and testing.

4.FMCSA Drug Test Initiation: Your company initiates the FMCSA pre-employment drug test, ensuring compliance with federal regulations and establishing a comprehensive drug testing program.

5.Training Commencement: Begin training after receiving negative drug test results, shaping aspiring drivers into competent professionals capable of responsibly handling road challenges.

6.ELDT Scheduling Notification: Notify Eclipse DOT when ready for entry-level driver training (ELDT) scheduling, expediting the process for permit holders with driving skills.

7.Skills Test Coordination: Coordinate your skills test with Eclipse DOT to streamline the transition from training to testing, advancing toward CDL acquisition.

8.DMV Visit Post Skills Test: After passing the skills test, visit the DMV to obtain your CDL.

9.Celebrate: Celebrate obtaining your CDL responsibly, recognizing your hard work, dedication, and company support in achieving this milestone.

WHAT ECLIPSE DOT CAN DO FOR YOU

ENTRY-LEVEL DRIVER TRAINING (ELDT)

Here at Eclipse DOT, it is our mission to take the complexity out of DOT compliance for individuals and businesses. Our Entry-level Driver Training (ELDT) program is fast, on-demand, and custom-tailored to your CDL needs—not to mention one of the most cost-effective training programs in the industry. We offer two types of training for drivers.

On-Demand Or In-Person Training:

Our online learning system makes ELDT theory training easy and fun. Our courses are on-demand so you can learn on your own time with current information!

Behind the Wheel Training (BTW):

Save money and time by customizing your BTW training to fit your unique business needs. We have flexible solutions for everyone, no matter what industry you're in. There is no minimum hours! You're training provider determines your driver proficiency.

MANAGED DRIVER QUALIFICATION (DQ) FILES

At Eclipse DOT we've developed a solution to bid farewell to the complexities of DQ file management. Say goodbye to the paperwork pile-up and welcome the ease of having a dedicated Customer Care professional handle all your DQ file needs.
